

Pictures of Things That Come in Groups

In class, we've been drawing pictures of things that come in groups. Choose another item that comes in groups.

1. Draw a picture of several groups of the item.
2. Write sentences about the three pieces of mathematical information in your picture.
3. Then write the multiplication equation that describes your picture.

Here is an example.

